

Using Innovation to Engage Young People in Meaningful Experiences and Learning

Classes for anyone who works with young people – out-of-school-time workers, educators, early childhood providers, youth ministers, juvenile justice workers, supervisors of youth workers, etc.

HMS 170: Creativity and Youth Engagement

This blended class (50% face-to-face, 50% online) provides a comprehensive overview of relevant theories of creativity and its application to working with young people. As the demands of quality education and out-of-school-time programming increase, it is the creative adult who is able to maintain innovative approaches to engage young people. Come explore the creative process and leave equipped to enhance the quality of what you do every day. Imagine the possibilities!

- 3 credits: 90 points for educators, 4.5 CEUs
- TNCC Tuition and fees - $467.85
- Class held off-campus at Alternatives, Inc.
- Attendance required for all three face-to-face class dates

HMS 171: Advancing Youth Development

This blended class (50% face-to-face, 50% online) provides an overview of principles of youth development research and the impact on the youth work field. Current trends in youth work emphasize the importance of positive youth-adult interactions in a young person's life. Come explore the principles of healthy youth development and leave with a better understanding of young people and your role in helping them reach their full potential. It's time to professionalize the field of youth work!

- 3 credits: 90 points for educators, 4.5 CEUs
- TNCC Tuition and fees - $467.85
- Class held off-campus at Alternatives, Inc.
- Attendance required for all three face-to-face class dates

Creativity and Youth Engagement

Saturday, 9am-5pm

Oct 13, 2018

Nov 10, 2018

Dec 1, 2018

"This class opened me up to people I would never have met, tools I would never have considered using, and conversations I would have never had. It has revealed me in many ways, and though my students will never know it – they will benefit greatly from this class."

"Thank you for the class. It was in every sense of the word, enlightening. Bravo!"

"Human resources told me about this class. Teachers at my school also told me about the classes last year. Your classes are a constant buzz word where I work."

Advancing Youth Development

Saturday, 9am-5pm

Sept 22, 2018

Oct 6, 2018

Oct 27, 2018

"Taking this course has really been a proverbial shot in the arm for my professional development."

"This course introduces and defines the terminology, common language and basic understandings of youth development. It encourages a higher sense of professionalism in youth workers and renews our spirit and dedication to our work."

"Educators and parents could both benefit from learning about youth development and I truly believe it would help make a positive impact on the future of our young people we influence."

These classes are part of the Career Studies Certificate in Youth Development offered through TNCC.

To register, contact

Bernie Tennyson

btennyson@cox.net

The Peninsula's Community College

Alternatives, Inc.
359 Fenwick Road
Fort Monroe, VA 23651
T – 757-838-2330
F- 757-838-9215